Issue 65 Friday 23rd June 2023

Penn Fest

Friday 16th of June saw Penn Fest 2023 at the Newhampton Arts Centre. There was a fantastic turnout of students, families and staff to support the event and share in the achievements of our Key Stage 4 students. The workshops in collage, clay, canvas, origami and mask painting were expertly taught by the students and there were some super creations that visitors could take home. The artwork was admired by the many visitors and it was wonderful to see so many students and their families at the event.

Stay Cool

The chickens have been roasting in the hot weather so they have been treated to a paddling pool and sun shade to keep them cool and prevent them from over heating.

Please remember to stay safe in the sun. Your child is allowed to wear appropriate cooler clothing to school during the hot weather. We also encourage that students bring a hat, suncream and a drink to school and try to avoid wearing their jumpers and coats in the sun.

Reading Corner
