Issue 152 Friday 7th November 2025

Humanities

In Humanities this week, we have enjoyed learning about our world, finishing our Egyptian necklaces and cat mummies and taking part in some role play for the story of 'The Boy Who Cried Wolf' which has been reinforcing one of our core values, 'Trust'.

Remembrance

Elm class created a sensory tuff tray for students to explore as part of their learning about remembrance day.

Maths Week

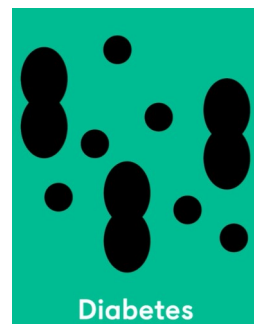

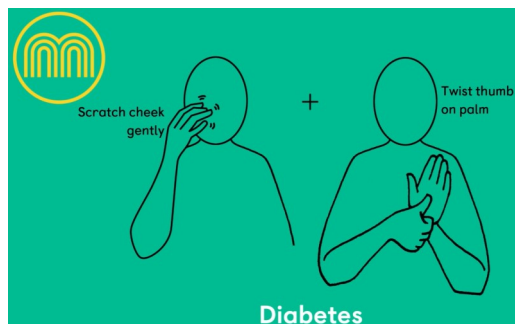

Students have been exploring ways in which we use Maths in our everyday life. They have played and solved logical problems using teamwork, made delicious treats, explored money and budgeting and finished the week with our favourite Cluedo murder mystery.

This weeks sign of the week is Diabetes.
