Printmaking

4H and 4H took part in a printmaking workshop with local artists, Lindsey Pritchard and Jacky Fellows. Students used printmaking techniques to create prints on paper and fabric to be displayed at our annual art event 'Penn Fest' at the Wolverhampton Arts Centre in June next year.

Remembrance

KS4 Nurture class were busy this week during their Duke of Edinburgh's Award lesson creating an outdoor poppy display for Remembrance Day. Students learned about the soldiers that gave their lives during the war.

This weeks sign of the week is Fire.

Colour Mixing

7J have enjoyed colour mixing this week. They have been exploring the primary colours red, blue and yellow to create secondary colours in paint, chalk and coloured water.

Festival of Light

Last half term, Oak class were learning about Diwali and listening to the story of Rama and Sita. Students decorated Diva lamps and built Rama and Sita's kingdom, decorated with lamps to guide them home.
